

THE INSTITUTE OF
CHINGGIS KHAAN
HERITAGE AND CULTURE

ANNOUNCEMENT OF A NEW JOURNAL, TITLED, 'CHINGGIS KHAAN HERITAGE STUDIES' AND CALL FOR SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The Institute of Chinggis Khaan Heritage and Culture was established by Mongolian Government Resolution No, 142, in 2019 and now is functioning under the Ministry of Culture, Mongolia.

Our institute is a research and cultural organization, aiming at elevating Chinggis Khaan studies as a leading branch of Mongolian studies, conducting research works for developing a historical tourism on Chinggis Khaan as a Man of the Millennium and legislating Chinggis Khaan related social activities such as ceremonies, veneration, use of name; establishing an integrated documentation and information database about Chinggis Khaan heritage and culture; and cooperating with domestic and foreign organizations for studying and promoting Great Mongol history period in the meantime promoting Chinggis Khaan's roles in Mongolian history in particular and world history in general.

We are pleased to announce formation of 'Chinggis Khaan Heritage Studies', a scientific journal, dedicated to the 860th birth anniversary of Chinggis Khaan, in Mongolian and English which will be disseminated either by paper publication or electronically.

We will accept scientific articles and critiques of scientific works in English related to Chinggis Khaan and his successors and Great Mongolian period in the study areas mentioned below:

- History and archeology;
- Ethnology, anthropology, textology;
- Literature, Linguistics;
- Culture and Art,
- Religious studies;
- Legal studies.

Please send your article to: info@chinggisinstitute.gov.mn

Kindly, contact with Mr. Khatanbaatar through email: khatanbaatar.ch@chinggisinstitute.gov.mn for further information.

First floor, Chinggis Khaan Museum Building,
J.Sambu Street, 4th Khoroo, Chingeltei Duureg, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia

Website: chinggisinstitute.gov.mn

Phone: +976-70000046, +976-70000064, +976-99288184

